

THE CAYLEY HUSTLER

VOL. IV, No. 16

CAYLEY, ALTA. APRIL 16, 1913

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 A YEAR

F. F. Macdonald
Notary Public
CAYLEY - ALTA.

MONEY TO LOAN

on

Farm Property

Lowest current rates

Roberts & Hunt
High River

Presbyterian Church

CAYLEY

Sunday school at 10.15 a.m.
Public worship, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.
MEADOWBANK
Sunday school at 2.30 o'clock
Public worship at 3.15

Methodist Church

CAYLEY

Service every Sunday at 7.30 o'clock.
Sunday school Adult class at 3 p.m.
Prayer service every Wednesday evening at 8.00 p.m.

FORKS

Preaching every Sunday at 11.00 a.m.
ZEPHER SCHOOL.
Sunday School at 2 p.m.
Praying service at 3 p.m.
To each and all services the public are urged to attend.

REV. OLIVER E. MANN, Pastor.

Cayley Hotel

W. A. BOURDON, Prop.

Rates, $1.50 per day.

Special Table for Farmers

Campbell Douglas

REAL ESTATE

INSURANCE, LOANS,
COMMISSIONER, VALUATOR
Commission Merchant

Grain and Coal Dealer

Cayley, Alta.

C. C. CHUMLEY

Livery, Feed & Exchange Stables

DRAYING

Licensed Auctioneer.

JEWELRY

It will pay you
to drop a line to

D. E. BLACK, Calgary
and get our new Catalogue

It makes Gift giving easy, and contains suggestions for all your friends.

D. E. Black

Mfg. Jeweler and Optician
116A 8th Ave. E., CALGARY

A. A. BALLACHEY

BARRISTER

SOLICITOR NOTARY PUBLIC

Solicitor for—The Union Bank; The Canadian Bank of Commerce; The Dominion Bank; and the Town of High River.
Representing—The Manufacturers Life Ins. Co.; The Royal Loan and Savings Co.; The Great West Furniture Loan Co.

Private Funds to Loan

High River, Alberta, Canada
Phone 46

Landslide Predicted for Thursday

The following forecast of the result Thursday is taken from the report of one of the provincial Conservative organizers. Many of the turnovers he explains in various ways. In some constituencies there are two Liberals to split the vote, in others the small majority last election is being overcome by organization, and again the redistribution. The way it figures out is:

Likely Conservative.....	20
Likely Liberal.....	18
Independent.....	2
Doubtful.....	14

If the elections should turn out as above it would mean the overthrow of the government and a Conservative majority of nine.
That would include the two Independent candidates who will, without doubt, vote with the party in power.

Conservative	Liberal	Doubtful (Probably Con.)
Alexandra ✓	Beaver River	Acadia
Bow Valley	Canrose	Cardston
Calgary Centre ✓	Coronation	Clareholm
Calgary North ✓	Edmonton (1)	Gleichen
Calgary South ✓	Edson	Leduc
Clearwater	Ground	Lethbridge City
Cochrane	Lac Ste. Anne	Little Bow
Dudbury	Little Bow	Nanton
Edmonton (1) ✓	Olds	Stettler—(9)
Edmonton South ✓	Pembina	Doubtful
Hand Hills	Ponoka	(Probably Lib.)
High River ✓	Sedgewick	Redcliff
Innisfail ✓	Stony Plain	St. Albert
Lacombe	Sturgeon	Vegreville
Medicine Hat ✓	Taber	Wainor
Okotoks ✓	Vermilion	Wetaskiwin—(5)
Pincher Creek ✓	Victoria
Red Deer ✓	Wainwright—(18)
Ribstone	Independent
Whitford (20)	Rocky Mountain
	St Paul—(2)

Cut this out and compare with the returns.

HOW PARTIES ARE LINED UP

Constituencies	Con.	Lib	Ind
Acadia	Lowrey, J. R.	McCall
Alexandra	Wood, J. H.	Lyster, V. C.
Beaver River	Grey, A.	Garley, W.
Bow Valley	Riley, H. W.	Lane, Geo.
Calgary, C.	Twocote, T. M.	Rev. J. McDougall
Calgary, N.	Hillocks, S. B.	Ross, Geo. H.	Dick Burge (Sol)
Calgary, S.	Blow, Dr. T. H.	Jones, C. T.
Canrose	Rushion, R. L.	Smith, Geo. P.
Cardston	Jensen, C. J.	Wood, Martin	Malchow, G. (Far
Clareholm	Dr. McMillan	Moffatt, Wm.	Clark (Ind)
Cochrane	Taylor	McKenney, H.
Coronation	Jarrett, S. H.	Fisher, C. W.
Dudbury	Wilson, W. W.	Whiteside, F.
Edmonton	Seixsmith, Geo.	Stauffer, Jos.
Edmonton, S.	Griesbach, W.	McKay, A. G.
Edson	Ewing, A. F.	Cross, C. W.
Gleichen	Crawford, H. H.	Rutherford, A. C.	Smith, F. C.
Ground	Verge, H. H.	Cross, C. W.
Hand Hills	McElroy, G.	McArthur, I. P.
High River	Travers, O.	Cote, J. L.
Innisfail	Robertson, A. J.	Eaton, Carl
Lacombe	Dr. Stanley	McMillan, R.
Lac Ste. Anne	Archer, F.	Stinson, J. A.
Leduc	McDonald, A. M.	Puffer, W.
Lethbridge	Barber	Gunn, Peter
Little Bow	Currie, G.	Tobin, J. S.
Medicine Hat	Stewart, Dr.	Jones, J. (Lib-Lib)	Knight (Sol)
Nanton	McDonald, J. T.	McNaughton, J.	Budden, Alf (Sol)
Okotoks	Patterson, Robt	Sifton, A. L.
Olds	Spencer, Nelson	Mitchell, C. R.
Pincher Creek	Cooper, J. T.	Glendonning, J. M.
Pembina	Headley, Geo.	Turner, J. A.
Pincher Creek	Clokey, Geo.	Marshall, Duncan
Ponoka	(Deferred)	McKenney, J. A.
Redcliff	Armitage, F. D.	Monat, A. N.
Red Deer	Kennnis, J.	Campbell, Dr.
Ribstone	Gordon, G.	Pingie, E. S.
Rocky Mountain	Crow, H.	Weliver, R. B.
Sedgewick	Blair, W. J.	Turgeon, J. G.
Stettler	Campbell, Robt	Powell (Lib-Lib)	O'Brien (Sol)
Stony Plain	Watson, Wm.	Stewart, Hon. C.
Sturgeon	McMorris, Geo.	Shaw, R. L.	McNeill, M. (Sol)
St. Albert	Weidenhamme, C.	McPherson, J. A.
St. Paul	Hyndman, J. D.	Boyle, J. R.
Taber	Lindsay, Hector	Boudreau, Lucien
Vegreville	Radiot	Lessard, P. E.
Vermilion	Ives, W.	McLean, A. J.	Smith, T. E. (Sol)
Wainwright	Morrison, F. A.	McCallum, Jas	Svarich (Ind-Con)
Warner	Clarke, J. G.	Sifton, A. L.
Wetaskiwin	Pollard	Walker, Frank	Gowda
Whitford	Hudson, G. L.	Pawling, J. Y.
	Scott, Dr.	Patton, Dr.	Leffingwell (Ind)
	Campbell, G. B.	Olin, C. H.
	Hughson	Shandro, And	Ridley, Connolly

Swat the Flies

The coming of warm weather
ushers in the period when premises are wont to be invaded by the housefly. Therefore, now is the time to take measures to mitigate the nuisance. Much can be done in this direction by careful spring cleaning, to be followed by a swatting of the early intruders as they begin to make their appearance.

Householders would do well to make use of an inexpensive recipe.
It is to sprinkle with a weak solution of formaldehyde all places where it is suspected flies are likely to breed. In the interests of public health, it would be likewise well that sanitary authorities should insist on this remedy being applied to all places where stable refuse is likely to accumulate.
The menace of the housefly is,
perhaps, not regarded by many
with the seriousness with which it should be viewed. Medical testimony places the fly as one of the greatest distributors of the germs of typhoid and dysentery. Therefore both a public and a private campaign should be incessantly waged against the pest.

It would not be going too far if restaurants were placed under sanitary supervision in the instatances upon their providing guards
for the doors and windows to prevent the ingress of flies, and of employing methods to keep down
the nuisance. The presence of flies on eating tables and on all food should be noted, and the keepers of such establishments should be warned to make use of existing remedies for their elimination.

Big Campaign Against Weeds

With an increase of $5,000 in the grant for weed inspection in the province, and with the appointment of additional weed inspectors under the newly-organized municipalities a big effort will be made to minimize the weed evil in Alberta this year. In some cases the municipalities are combining the duties of road foreman and weed inspector, and are thus able to have a weed inspector in each township. The worst enemy of the farmers in Southern Alberta is the Russian thistle, which spread considerably last fall, and is expected to give trouble again
this year.

EYE SIGHT

YOUR EYES

will appreciate the ease and comfort derived from wearing "proper fitting glasses." If you have not had your "Eyes" attended to,
WHY PUT IT OFF?

Our Representative will be at

Cayley Every Two Months

Make it a point to Consult him

ALL WORK FULLY

GUARANTEED

The Taube Optical Company

709 First Street West

CALGARY, ALBERTA

Established 1871

Long Distance Phone, 2684

SHIP YOUR GRAIN

TO

JOHN BILLINGS & CO.

LICENSED AND BONDED GRAIN COMMISSION MERCHANTS

WINNIPEG.

LIBERAL ADVANCES.

PROMPT RETURNS

FAIR TREATMENT

DISCOUNTS

We need the room, and are obliged to reduce our stock of - - -

Heaters, Fireplaces and Cooking Stoves

Get in line for the BIG DISCOUNTS at the Cayley Hardware

Formerly MCMEEKIN & SCRAGG

C. STEEN, Mgr.

Just Received

Our new stock of

GENTS' SPRING HATS

in all the latest styles, has just arrived

We have also a complete stock of

GENTS' FURNISHINGS

Call and see these goods

F. F. McDONALD, Cayley

to which he passed resulting in a surprise to him. While at a small age he promised to baptize a baby, saying that it would be a pleasure to officiate similarly for the other infants around. On his next twenty-one babies were presented for baptism.

PREVENTING STRIKES

THE SHARING PLAN HAS BEEN A SUCCESS IN BRITAIN

The Terrible Loss to Industry as a Result of the Repeated Labor Wars in the Old Land is Bringing into Sharp Relief the Results of the Sharing Plan Which is Now in Force in Many Big Concerns.

Every serious-minded man must be well acquainted with the fact that for 1911 and the first eight months of 1912 in Great Britain, says a London Journal. In the former year there were no fewer than 900 trade disputes involving 101,000 working days, while in the period mentioned of 1912 there were 501 disputes, involving 1,360,000 work-people, causing a total estimated loss of 39,308,000 working days, figures unprecedented in the records of the Island of Trade.

When and where is this acute labor unrest going to stop? What is the remedy? These are the questions which men of all shades of opinion have been asking for some time past. And their suggestions for remedying the state of industrial unrest, in which the country was thrown during the first months of 1912, when the condition it is possible may be repeated—are almost as numerous and varied as the real and imaginary causes of the employees.

Over twenty years ago, however, that very astute and far-seeing man, the late Sir George Lister, chairman of the South Metropolitan Gas Co., of London, adopted a strike-preventive plan, which has proved successful, successful, and has also been successfully carried out by other gas companies.

In 1890 occurred the great dock strike, and that year the company was approached by a trade union asking to make various concessions to the men. These were refused, and the strike, in order to avert the danger of strikes in future, Sir George introduced a special system of sharing profits.

The scheme adopted by this gas company provided for the payment of a percentage or bonus of all salaries to the workmen. The bonus was other half being invested in the ordinary stock of the company. The bonus, as the scheme, briefly, is to give all officers and employees to take a real interest in the work by giving them a motive for endeavoring to promote the company's prosperity and to give them the opportunity of becoming owners of property in the stock of the firm. The rate of bonus was fixed at 3 per cent., in 1892, to 9.4 per cent., in 1906, and in 1911 was paid in the twenty-three years ending 1911 being over $1,700,000.

In all, since the company's employees hold between them ordinary stock of the company to the value of £301,600. In addition, the company holds on its books a reserve of its employee deposits, accumulated bonus, and other savings to the total amount of £240,000. The company has placed it on record that this profit-sharing scheme has introduced harmonious relations between employees and employers and led to an avoidance of strikes.

It is urged that in these days, when working men consider that they are not getting their share of the fruits of their labor, they should share in the profits of the company. The profit-sharing scheme might be more generally adopted, and it would be a great advantage to employers and employees.

Thirty-two gas companies followed the example of the South Metropolitan Gas Co. with very great success, while two others, the London and South Western Gas Co. and the London and North Western Gas Co., have also been adopted by Messrs. Lever Brothers, of Port Sunlight, have had a similar profit-sharing scheme in operation over three years, which provides for a bonus of 10 per cent. among those workers who have been employed five years, of partnership certificates bearing a face value of 10 per cent. of the workers' annual wages. These certificates are received as though they were shares, but at a rate 3 per cent. less—that is, it shares receive 10 per cent. interest and receive 10 per cent. This was the result of last year's working, when the dividend of £28,750 was paid, and the workers, who now hold over £280,000 of partnership certificates, have received a total dividend of more than £200,000.

In the case of the London and North Western Gas Co., the rules of the company provide that an employee may be entitled to a bonus deposit with him of not less than one shilling and not more than £1 of his weekly wage, the deposit can be cashed at any time, and the dividend paid out half the difference between the first rate and the dividend payable on the shares. The bonus and the interest and bonus being added to the employee's salary.

The keen interest which employees have in this scheme is shown by the fact that the total amount they deposited with the company in 1911 was no less than £240,000. A year after the South Metropolitan started their profit-sharing scheme, Messrs. Clarke, Nicolson & Co., Ltd., of the Carnarvon and Merioneth, Wales, started a somewhat similar scheme for their workpeople. The ordinary shareholders of the company, on their capital, the surplus profits being divided in the same proportions between the workpeople and the shareholders. In twenty-two years the workpeople have received the sum of £172,625. All employees who have worked one year and are over 21 years of age, and are paid in proportion to their wages and salaries. The bonus is paid in cash, and there is no compulsion for employees to invest any part of it in the company's stock. Every employee is given to them to acquire shares, and their holdings are considerable.

ROYAL SAILORS.

Served in the Navy.

The fact that Prince Albert, King George's second son, has embarked upon a naval career by joining the R.M.C. Cumberland as a cadet shows that old traditions in regard to the training of British princes are being rigidly observed. Apparently it is intended that Prince Albert, the king's father, shall be thoroughly trained in all matters connected with the sea. The Prince of Wales, it will be remembered, spent some months in the training ship, and it was ultimately decided that he should not be sent to sea until he was 18 years of age.

On the other hand, the naval training of Prince Albert, who is to share his first cruise at sea, will cover a wide range of subjects, and it is an illustration of the thoroughness in which this training is to be undertaken that, when the king heard that preparations had been on the Cumberland for accommodating the prince in a cabin, His Majesty promptly vetoed any such distinction and directed that his son, during the ensuing cruise, should be in every respect treated as an ordinary cadet.

So for some time to come Prince Albert will sleep in a hammock. The sending of the second son to sea is in accordance with previous practice. Prince George, the king's son, with his elder brother, the Duke of York, and the Duke of Cornwall, the king's third son, on the Britannia training ship, and then made a voyage round the world in the Albatross, a ship in which the king's brother left the navy, and the king's son, the Duke of York, who is to share his first cruise at sea, will cover a wide range of subjects, and it is an illustration of the thoroughness in which this training is to be undertaken that, when the king heard that preparations had been on the Cumberland for accommodating the prince in a cabin, His Majesty promptly vetoed any such distinction and directed that his son, during the ensuing cruise, should be in every respect treated as an ordinary cadet.

Over twenty years ago, however, that very astute and far-seeing man, the late Sir George Lister, chairman of the South Metropolitan Gas Co., of London, adopted a strike-preventive plan, which has proved successful, successful, and has also been successfully carried out by other gas companies.

In 1890 occurred the great dock strike, and that year the company was approached by a trade union asking to make various concessions to the men. These were refused, and the strike, in order to avert the danger of strikes in future, Sir George introduced a special system of sharing profits.

The scheme adopted by this gas company provided for the payment of a percentage or bonus of all salaries to the workmen. The bonus was other half being invested in the ordinary stock of the company. The bonus, as the scheme, briefly, is to give all officers and employees to take a real interest in the work by giving them a motive for endeavoring to promote the company's prosperity and to give them the opportunity of becoming owners of property in the stock of the firm. The rate of bonus was fixed at 3 per cent., in 1892, to 9.4 per cent., in 1906, and in 1911 was paid in the twenty-three years ending 1911 being over $1,700,000.

In all, since the company's employees hold between them ordinary stock of the company to the value of £301,600. In addition, the company holds on its books a reserve of its employee deposits, accumulated bonus, and other savings to the total amount of £240,000. The company has placed it on record that this profit-sharing scheme has introduced harmonious relations between employees and employers and led to an avoidance of strikes.

It is urged that in these days, when working men consider that they are not getting their share of the fruits of their labor, they should share in the profits of the company. The profit-sharing scheme might be more generally adopted, and it would be a great advantage to employers and employees.

Thirty-two gas companies followed the example of the South Metropolitan Gas Co. with very great success, while two others, the London and South Western Gas Co. and the London and North Western Gas Co., have also been adopted by Messrs. Lever Brothers, of Port Sunlight, have had a similar profit-sharing scheme in operation over three years, which provides for a bonus of 10 per cent. among those workers who have been employed five years, of partnership certificates bearing a face value of 10 per cent. of the workers' annual wages. These certificates are received as though they were shares, but at a rate 3 per cent. less—that is, it shares receive 10 per cent. interest and receive 10 per cent. This was the result of last year's working, when the dividend of £28,750 was paid, and the workers, who now hold over £280,000 of partnership certificates, have received a total dividend of more than £200,000.

In the case of the London and North Western Gas Co., the rules of the company provide that an employee may be entitled to a bonus deposit with him of not less than one shilling and not more than £1 of his weekly wage, the deposit can be cashed at any time, and the dividend paid out half the difference between the first rate and the dividend payable on the shares. The bonus and the interest and bonus being added to the employee's salary.

The keen interest which employees have in this scheme is shown by the fact that the total amount they deposited with the company in 1911 was no less than £240,000. A year after the South Metropolitan started their profit-sharing scheme, Messrs. Clarke, Nicolson & Co., Ltd., of the Carnarvon and Merioneth, Wales, started a somewhat similar scheme for their workpeople. The ordinary shareholders of the company, on their capital, the surplus profits being divided in the same proportions between the workpeople and the shareholders. In twenty-two years the workpeople have received the sum of £172,625. All employees who have worked one year and are over 21 years of age, and are paid in proportion to their wages and salaries. The bonus is paid in cash, and there is no compulsion for employees to invest any part of it in the company's stock. Every employee is given to them to acquire shares, and their holdings are considerable.

OWNERS OF LONDON.

Some English Persa Own Great Tracts of Metropolis.

A speaker in the House of Commons on Tuesday night, Mr. J. H. Chamberlain, M.P., owned by a score or so of men, whom he named. It is true that a handful of names have been given, but it is not a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

The very rain makes Sir William Mackenzie's, the grain cannot be stored in the country's transportation. But it can be said that a handful of names have been given, but it is not a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

At the time of Lord George's husband, which proposed a revaluation of the land of England, a good deal was said of the great estates of the country. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Some 2,000 houses stand upon his estate, which is the largest of the richest part of the West End. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Even with this principality Lord Portman is not the richest landlord in London. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. G. B. Huntley, the London actor, is about to break out in print. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

An interview to me is almost as bad as a visit to a doctor, and you can't have gas or chloroform during an interview. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

George Andrie, a twelve-year-old cripple, of Leicester, England, is one of the most remarkable cases of a cripple in Britain. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

London possesses a curiosity in the Southwest end of the city, regularly for over three hundred years. It is little known to the general public. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Initiated Six Sons. At a meeting of the Robert Mitchell Lodge held at the Polytechnic, Regent Street, London, on Tuesday evening, Brother E. A. W. G. Eakin, P.M., initiated his six sons as Freemasons. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

A Wild Throw. In Dawson City some years ago a colored man, who had been in the city for some time, was found to be a thief. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Huge Piece of Ambergris. A piece of ambergris, estimated to be worth £100,000, was recently brought into Victoria, B.C., by a fisherman. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

MINISTERS' PEILS.

How Cabinet Officials Are Shadowed by the Police.

In a recently-published biography of Sir Charles Vincent, the Premier, it is stated that the Minister of the Interior is to be the exacting duties of his office, and the police during the Premier's absence, and the police during the Premier's absence, and the police during the Premier's absence.

W. E. Foster once gave the detective the slip and took the afternoon train for London. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

When the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Asquith, was in the House of Commons, he was followed by three men in evening dress, who quietly slipped into places near the speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

And no matter where our leading politicians go, in town or country, they are carefully guarded by representatives of Scotland Yard. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

To be persecuted by an early assassin is a very serious matter. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Graves left the Home Office in 1891, and was appointed to the post of a school, retiring a couple of years later. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Mac, Hansbrough, the famous pianist, has had some amusing experiences. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

A man named Rice, 30 inches tall, was born at Yarmouth, Eng., over ninety years ago, and claimed to be a descendant of King Henry VIII. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

The Budeley O.C. The Budeley O.C. is a very interesting case. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Good Eyesight. Mr. Bacon, of Hargreaves, Hants, Eng., who is 102 years of age, writes to the speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Must Avoid Shows. One of the conditions on which a bill was placed on probation by the speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Madras. The consulate of Madras occupies the southern portion of the Indian peninsula, extending over 30,000 square miles. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

BIGGEST DIAMOND MINE.

The Premier, Near Pretoria, in the Hugest In the World.

Twenty-five miles east of Pretoria in the Transvaal, the Premier, near Pretoria, in the Hugest In the World. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

The Premier Mine possesses an area of 3,500 claims, equal to eighty acres, and at the present time, 12,000,000 carats of diamonds are being mined. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

In addition to the 15,000 Kaffirs, there are 15,000 whites working in the mine in various capacities. It is worth noting that the mine is not only a source of wealth, but also a source of employment. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

TO ABOLISH NOISE.

Hiram Percy Maxim Looks Forward To A Silent City.

Tense and enthusiastic over the idea of abolishing noise, Hiram Percy Maxim looks forward to a silent city. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

The one great achievement I hope for and one that the world will see in a generation or less away, says: The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

This is no idle prediction and I have no doubt that it will be accomplished. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

"You know a boiler shop is as quiet as a tomb to a deaf man. If there were no noise, the world would be a very different place. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

Mr. Ormsby is the son of a former Irish judge. He was educated at the University of Dublin, and held several appointments in the British Consular Service. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list. The speaker, Mr. Chamberlain, took a "take-off" from almost every name in the list.

BANK OF HAMILTON

Save Your Money

WHAT a man earns is not as important as what he saves. An office boy making $6 a week, of which amount he saves $1, is actually earning more than the $25 a week man who saves nothing. The boy's business is paying a dividend; the man's is a failure.

No matter how small your salary may be, you make a serious mistake when you fail to save a part of it. When you get your next week's salary, make up your mind to deposit a certain percentage of it in the bank, where it will draw interest at the highest current rate.

Calvey Branch
D. N. Johnston, Agent

Western Canada
Lumber Company
(LIMITED)
Calvey Yards
All kinds of Lumber and Building Material
Brick, Lime, Cement, etc.
J. S. MACRAE, Manager.

Calvey Meat Market
Fresh and Cured Meats
Mutton Pork Veal
Fish Ham Bacon
Sausages

All Goods Sold for CASH
BUTTER AND EGGS
Taken in Exchange for Meats
L. Beaton

TAUBE
Eye-Sight Specialist
of Taube Optical Co.
132 8th Ave. E., Calgary
Will visit this town every two months
For date enquire at Drug Store.
All Work Absolutely Guaranteed

FREE TO FUR SHIPPERS
The most accurate, reliable and only market book
and price list of the fur trade.

"The Shubert Shippers"
Market Book in three languages, English, French and German. It is the only book of the kind.
SEND US YOUR NAME ON A POSTAL ORDER
FOR A FREE TRIAL COPY. If you are not satisfied, return it. No charge. We will send you the book free. Write to: The Shubert Shippers, 100, St. Louis, Mo. U.S.A.

Write for it—NOW—FREE
A. B. SHUBERT
The Largest Dealer in the World dealing exclusively in Fur Trade.
25-27 W. 4th Ave. N., Dept. 100, ST. LOUIS, MO., U.S.A.

For Sale
One team of Horses for sale, one 3 years old, one 9 years old, both in good condition. Apply to GEO. REEMS, Calvey.

Buff Orpington Thoroughbreds
For Sale.
I am thinking out my stock of Buff
Orpington Hens at $1.50 each, all laying.
These are from Edgemoor Gosh.
Poultry Farm stock. Good laying strain. Only a limited number.
REV. O. E. MANN,
The Parsonage, Calvey.

The Calvey Hustler.

Published every Wednesday
Subscription price, $1.00 a year
in advance
Single copy, 5 cents

A. NICHOLSON, Editor
For first-class job Printing, try the Hustler.

Local News

Rev. O. E. Mann was a Calgary visitor Friday last.

Mr. W. M. Marshall of Taber
is the guest of Wm. Caspell.

Quite a number attended the horse show in Calgary last week.

Mr. N. D. Scott returned from Ontario where he has spent the winter.

Mr. Roger Graham returned to Calvey Sunday morning. Reports
well of the south.

Calvey was pretty near deserted last Friday evening. Why? They all went to hear Bennett and Stanley
at High River.

Messrs. Armstrong, Cohen and Merriott are in from Kimmendale to cast their vote. Sure they are going to vote right.

The ladies aid of the Methodist church have undertaken to "clean up" the church, and we know what the women can do when they take the notion.

Now is the time to see about that new spring harness. Don't leave it to the very last minute, and then be disappointed. Leave your order at once with J. W.
Bradley.

A very enthusiastic Liberal meeting was held in the hall on Thursday evening. The candidate,
Mr. McMillan, being present,
with L. M. Roberts, and W.
M. G. Barnes, supporters.

Before another issue of the Hustler the successful candidate for this riding will be known, and in fact, the fate of the Sifton government will be settled. That settlement will not be satisfactory to everyone, however. There are some great surprises in store for many people—and candidates, too.

One or two of our local politicians started for Meadow Bank Monday evening with the intention of telling the ignorant people
out in that locality how to vote, but owing to a prairie fire on the Hart Ranch they showed their Liberal feeling by helping to extinguish the flames. That was better work.

Fanny Crosby, who has written 6,000 hymns, including "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "Jesus keep me near the cross," has been celebrating her ninety-third birthday in Bridgeport, Conn., her home. "Miss Crosby has been blind since she was six years old, when she met with an accident. The lesson of her life is that a person can be very useful even though suffering under a tremendous affliction. The hymns the blind singer wrote must have helped many people to bear great burden that came their way."
Montreal Gazette.

A parcel post system for Canada is to be inaugurated in part this year, according to the statement in the House of Commons on Monday, and the Postmaster-General, Hon. Mr. Pelletier, is now working out the details and has given notice of the introduction of a bill. The new system will be based on that recently put into force in the United States,
and is known as the zone system,
as distinct from the flat rate service
in the British Isles. Another reform foreshadowed is the improvement of the telegraphic service between Canada, the United Kingdom and other parts of the British Empire. Lower cable tariffs are aimed at—Toronto Globe.

Mr. Ives returned to the village
this week.

We regret to hear of Mr. Donald Sinclair and family leaving us this week. Mr. Sinclair has been a citizen in the truest sense of the word. Socially and morally he has won many friends, especially will be missed amongst his fellow-workers in the Presbyterian church. The Hustler, with his many friends, wish him all success
in his undertakings in the northern country.

A joint political meeting was held in the Presbyterian hall on Tuesday evening, at which a large number of the voters in this vicinity were present. The speakers were Mr. McCarthy of Calgary
and Dr. G. D. Stanley of High River, the Conservative candidate
for this constituency, while Mr.
Kaiting looked after the Liberal interests of the meeting. Each speaker presented their side of the issue in a very forceful manner and those present were ably shown the pros and cons in regard to a change of government in the province.

The Late James Allen

James Allen, an old and highly respected resident of Nanton, died on Saturday, April 12th. The deceased had been in failing health for the past few years, and for the past four months had been confined to his home.

Mr. Allen was born in Ontario and would have been 65 years old on June next. He came to Nanton about ten years ago, and located a homestead near Nanton
but for the past three years has resided in town.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. Andrew Little,
and a large number of friends
in town and surrounding country attended at the house and at the grave.

Mr. Allen was an elder in the Presbyterian church, and was a man of strictest integrity. He is survived by a widow, and by two sons—David of Parkland, and William, formerly railway agent
and telegraph operator at Nanton and Calvey, but now farming near Medicine Hat.

Calvey School Report

Grade ix. British History
Ada Farrell	77
Olive Mann	57
Earl Caspell	52
Zoology
Ada Farrell	95
Olive Mann	75
Earl Caspell	70
Grade viii. British History
Charlton Wickens	95
Corra Barker	50
Harold Mann	38
Fern Barker	17
Grade vi. Literature
Angus Scobie	84
Minnie Stevens	68
Eunice Keller	55
Ethel Barker	49
Rethel Barnes	31

Sheep Industry Encouraged

Extensive plans for the advancement and encouragement of the sheep breeding industry in Alberta and Saskatchewan were presented at a conference held on Friday at Ottawa by the live-stock commissioners of the department of agriculture and the committee appointed by the Dominion Sheep Breeders' association, consisting of Col. McKen of Byron, R.
Harding of Thorndale, and Col.
McKee of Guelph.

This is the same committee which was appointed last year to confer with the government on the advancement of the sheep breeding industry, and which was then appointed by the minister of agriculture to carry out the plans
which were formed to this end.
This took the form of the distribution of a considerable number of pure-bred rams and high-grade ewes, the buying of these being done by the committee, which also looked after their distribution in the Maritime provinces and in British Columbia, these being the two sections of the country chosen for the work last year.

In carrying out this idea there was something like $23,000 spent and the results have been so satisfactory according to reports received by the minister of agriculture, that not only will the work
be continued this year in the encouragement of sheep breeding,
but in all probability the same plan will be adopted for the breeding of other varieties of stock. In all likelihood the two provinces which will receive the best treatment
this year will be Alberta and Saskatchewan. As all those who are concerned in the work are of the opinion these two provinces not only offer an ample field for such work, but that the present is the important moment for beginning such work.

"The fact that the United States, by its new tariff bill shows a disposition to put raw wool on the free list, will stimulate the sheep industry in Canada," said Mr. Harding, "And nowhere in my opinion more than in these western provinces. It seems most notable when we are making this international effort to stimulate the sheep industry there should come this external movement also as a great stimulus. It is a happy coincidence."

The reports which have been received following the work of last year are most satisfactory, Colonel McKen stated. The government is of the opinion that the right course has been followed, and is prepared to give the strongest encouragement to this movement
for the development of live stock.
It is because of the successful work attending the movement to aid the sheep breeders that the extension of the idea to other branches of the live stock industry has already been discussed, and is likely to be carried into effect this year. The members of the committee have left Ottawa for their homes.

Not Up on Sings

"I'd like to get a room for the night,
drawed the old man with the ribs,
whiskers and yellow matches
"My Jinks, Harkness" whispered
the clerk to the bellhop, "all of the rooms are filled, but we don't want to discourage the country gentlemen, so we'll have to give him some kind of a stall."

But the old man overheard the remark and fired up instantly. "No,
you don't!" he blurted out, "I'm cricket, not if I wanted to sleep in a stall I'd stopped at the Ivory stable
on the other corner."—Chicago News.

Twinkling Stars Mean Bad Weather
I have constantly observed at sea
that steadily bright stars indicated calm, fair weather, and the more they twinkled the worse the weather was likely to be. The forecast given by the variation in scintillating was almost variably correct in the high latitudes,
though it failed sometimes in the tropics.—Nature.

A "Friday" Ship.

A true story is told of a skeptical
Massachusetts captain who, way back in the early years of the republic, determined to exhibit the fallacy of the Friday superstition. He contracted on a certain Friday for the building of a ship, and it was arranged that the keel
of this vessel was laid on Friday, that the ship was launched on Friday, named Friday, commenced loading on a Friday and sailed into the stream on the same day of the week. To add to the possibilities of disaster, a negro cook named Friday was engaged, and thus fully freighted with the sinister name,
the Friday sailing on a Friday, bound a port in the West India. From that day to this no tidings of the ill conditioned craft have been received.

Feast of Fools

The best authorities agree that the origin of the ancient custom of celebrating a feast of fools is unknown.
Some identify it with the Roman feast of fools on March 31. But why did the Romans institute the feast of fools? In India March 31 is "the bull festival," when all manner of pranks are played upon the livestock. But again, where did the Hindus get it? The French call the April fool "un poisson d'avril" (April fool). To the Scotch he is a "gawp" (a cuckoo).

To Get the Best For Your Money in PRINTING

If you have not given this opportunity to demonstrate our claims you are the loser as much as ourselves

This is where we come in

To those who have not been satisfied with their PRINTING—and all others—we ask a trial.

It's Up to You

Bring your next order for all kinds of Printing to "THE HUSTLER" and we will guarantee to give you neat and tasty work—work that will please you.

What Do You Think of It?